IMPORTANT THINGS TO REMEMBER

A Message From Jim Tatum, Fairgrounds Manager

1. Horse Show contestants will be allowed to enter the grounds at 5:00 pm on Wednesday, August 31, 2011. This will allow adequate time for barn decoration and acclimation of the animals. Arrival prior to this time greatly impacts the ability of fair staff to safely complete many tasks necessary to produce an event of this magnitude.
2. It is against the law to bring alcoholic beverages to the fairgrounds. Violation of this law jeopardizes the fair's liquor license and could ultimately result in the elimination of such sales. Glass containers of any type are also prohibited.
3. Parking in the barn area creates a significant safety hazard violates State Fire Marshall regulations and generally results in chaos. Short-term stopping is allowed to unload stock. When finished, please proceed to the parking areas east of Barn 5 and north of the Mule Days Office. Remember, parking space is limited. Please park in a manner that is safe and maximizes the available space.
4. The Tri-County Fair horse show is intended to be a fun event, focusing on the exposure of all ages to the world of competitive showing. Every effort is made to provide classes conducive to maximum involvement.

Weather you are a seasoned veteran or relatively new to the show ring, please take this opportunity to interact with other competitors. Much can be learned by watching those with extensive experience and much can be gained by helping those with less experience.

The Eastern Sierra Tri-County Fair Horse Show is produced by the ESTCF in cooperation with the Bishop Saddle Club, Eastern Sierra Sliders and managed by Karen West. Please treat them with respect and utilize them as a sounding board for potential improvements for future shows.

Thank you in advance for participation in the 2011 Tri-County Fair Horse Show, and remember HAVE FUN!

By my signature in this section, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to abide by all rules. I understand that if I fail to abide by rules set forth, I may be excused from the Eastern Sierra Tri-County Fair Horse Show and no refund of entry fees shall be made.
